

1. The PennyMac mortgage was opened simultaneously with mis-matching real name, social security number, disclosures, and account information. The payments say they started in July but do not match the mortgage from Sovereign we originated and no payments were ever made directly to them. The welcome letter, note, deed of trust have incorrect loan numbers are not the original. The FHA assignment is missing and there is a different loan number. The note and loan were not in the abstract filed in the county, yet there are two assignments from themselves to themselves (PennyMac) with mis-matching real name info and never show one from sovereign which where it originated.
2. The SSN is wrong on the credit report and was never furnished by me. There is an inquiry from PennyMac on 12/5/2025 and was never authorized or originated by me but coincides with the illegal HELOC attempt from Sovereign. The valid inquiry was a hard pull on 12/5/2025 by sovereign which was denied.
3. One of the assignments appears to belong to another home with matching dates for inquiries on my credit report and the other was used to open an investor mortgage. The quit claim deed filed, and illegal mortgage assignment are filed in the Comanche county court records and have matching unauthorized inquiries on that credit profile in an apparent attempt to make it look legitimate.

The inquiries highlighted in yellow are known to be accurate. The highlighted red selections are fraudulent as it relates to this report.

Soft Inquiries

Soft inquiries are generally initiated by others, like companies making promotional offers or lenders periodically reviewing your existing credit accounts. Soft inquiries also include checking your own credit report or using credit monitoring services, and have no impact on your credit score.
